

I wish to emphatically protest any FCC action which might have the effect of pre-empting or weakening in any way the existing protections against telemarketer intrusion which we enjoy in Indiana. Placing my name on the Indian "do not call" list has substantially decreased nuisance telemarketer calls. Do not weaken this protection.